

SECTIONWISE SOLUTIONS
ENGLISH LANGUAGE

81. (3); Drinkable water flowed through Yellowknife Bay once.
82. (5); Only (B) and (C)
83. (1); Though there is no evidence of organics at Yellowknife Bay site yet the possibility of life over there cannot be ruled out.
84. (2); Life is not possible without CO₂.
85. (4); Irrefutable means impossible to deny or disprove. So, indisputable is the word which is similar in meaning to it.
86. (2); Replace 'serve' with 'serving'
87. (3); Replace 'manage' with 'managing'
88. (1); Replace 'specially' with 'especially'
89. (5); No error
90. (4); Replace 'a' with 'an'
- For question (91-95); The proper sequence to form a meaningful paragraph is BDAEC.
91. (4); B
92. (1); D
93. (5); A
94. (2); C
95. (3); E
96. (4); 'prompted, fray' is the correct use where 'prompted' means to cause or bring about (an action or feeling) and 'fray' means a battle or fight.
97. (2); 'having, takes' is an idiom which means that one cannot or should not have or want more than one deserves or can handle.
98. (1); 'anarchy, dissolution' is the correct use which means absence of government and absolute freedom of the individual, regarded as a political ideal and 'dissolution' means the action of formally ending or dismissing an assembly.
99. (5); 'announced, condescended' is the correct use where announce means to make a formal public statement about a fact, occurrence, or intention and condescended means show that one feels superior.
100. (3); 'aftermath, infallible' is the correct use where aftermath means the consequences or after-effects of a significant unpleasant event and infallible means incapable of making mistakes or being wrong.
101. (4); Replace 'of regulating of' with 'over regulation of'
102. (3); Replace 'raise most' with 'raising is the most'
103. (2); Replace 'A little has been known' with 'Little is known'
104. (3); Replace 'who has ever lived' with 'that have ever lived'
105. (5); No correction required
106. (3); Replace 'first' with 'former'
107. (1); Replace 'will be' with 'is'
108. (2); Replace 'from' with 'on'
109. (5); No error
110. (3); Replace 'unless' with 'without'
111. (3)
112. (1)
113. (4)
114. (2)
115. (5)
116. (3)
117. (1)
118. (4)
119. (5)
120. (2)